

Fact or Opinion

A fact is a statement that can be proven true. An opinion is someone's judgement or feeling and cannot be proven. Read the following sentences and write an F on the line next to those that are facts. Write an O on the line next to those that are opinions.

 1. Money makes people happy.

 2. All people have wants and needs.

 3. People want things that make their life easier or more enjoyable.

 4. A bike is a good that will make my life easier.

 5. Buyers spend money on goods and services they want.

 6. When someone cuts your hair, she is providing a service.

 7. A new hairstyle will make my life more enjoyable.

 8. It's worth it to pay a higher price to get Nike gym shoes.

 9. Money makes it easier for people to get the goods and services they want.

 10. Before money existed, people traded goods and services they owned to get the goods and services they wanted.