

American Entertainers

After reading the information piece on American entertainers, you will be split into two groups and will debate whether or not entertainers are paid too much money.

Group 1: Your group is in favor of the amount of money American entertainers are paid. Use facts found in the reading for information piece along with research you conduct to provide evidence for the debate.

Group 2: Your group is against the amount of money American entertainers are paid. Use facts found in the reading for information piece along with research you conduct to provide evidence for the debate.