

Spending Money

Think about a time when you spent your money to buy something and ended up regretting your purchase later. Write a paragraph about your experience. What was the main reason you bought that item? Was it something you needed or something you wanted? What did you learn from that experience?

