Letter Writing

Pick an adult in your life that you know most likely does a lot of their banking and shopping online. Write a letter to them giving them advice on how to keep their identity safe online and the consequences if they don't.
