SPRINGFIELD – Illinois State Treasurer Michael Frerichs today reminded small non-profit organizations in Illinois that the current application cycle for up to $20,000 each in Charitable Trust grant funding ends Sept. 30.

The Charitable Trust Stabilization Fund will accept applications through Sept. 30 to assist organizations with annual budgets of $1 million or less that support individuals with food, housing, workforce, and economic programs. A total of $200,000 is available in this grant cycle.

“This is a great opportunity to apply for funding to help grow and expand your organization,” Frerichs said. “I have had the great pleasure of visiting many of the Charitable Trust grant recipients to see first-hand the important work they are doing for their communities and how this funding has helped people in need.”

Awardees are selected by an 11-member committee, which oversees the management and guidelines of the fund. Since the program was established in 2017, more than $3.3 million has been awarded to 163 non-profits.

Previous grant recipients are eligible to apply if the term of their grant has been completed for at least one calendar year.

Grant awards comes from filing fees non-profits pay when incorporating in the state of Illinois, not personal or property tax dollars.
